If you know anything about search engine optimization, you will know the best way to soar up the search engine listings is to build a high number of quality backlinks to your website. These backlinks confirm with the search engines that your website content is of very high importance because there are other websites who are linking directly back to you. However, it can be a very labour intensive task to go through forums and submit your links to all of the directories, just to have the possibility of them accepting your link in one to three months.br /

There is a way to increase your backlinks enormously and that is through a 100% free traffic system. When you submit an article (minimum word count of only 450 words) about your chosen topic, you can add TWO of your website links into the article content itself. You are able to submit these articles to up to 30 blog or article websites for free. Simply select which article or blog sites you would like to add your article to for maximum impact. That's 60 FREE backlinks you will receive just by writing one article and submitting it! How easy is that! br /
