Many MLM programs have been reviewed by marketing experts and some of them have come to realize that rather than enriching their prospects, they rip them off. They all follow the same pattern. They ask you to pay some cash when joining them and they make you recruit people for their businesses and give you peanuts in return. At a point, you get frustrated and quit. Your deposit and other fees are not refunded. You lose. The program directors smile to their banks while you scratch your head in sorrow. The GPBP strategy now turns the tide against these Internet gurus.br /

1. Look for affiliate programs that offer to pay you cash before you upgrade to a paid member.br /
2. Make sure that free membership option is available.br /
3. Make sure that the cash promised is delivered to your member account before you spend a penny.br /
4. Look for free advertising opportunities with no string attached.br /
5. Some traffic exchanges will require from you to surf certain number of web pages before you qualify for free ads. Dont join such programs. Its waste of time.br /
6. Join free business forums where you can interact freely with like minded people. Even, your membership of social networking websites will be of immense benefit for you in this regard. By building up friendship and interacting with others in your group, you already on your way to success.br /
