Ten Independent Affiliate Programs Wealthy Affiliates Are Using Which You Should Consider

Not all of the good affiliate programs go through the big boys. As you can imagine, there are advantages and disadvantages to using someone like Linkshare or Commission Junction to run your program. The major disadvantages seem to be cost (expect to drop ten grand for setup and network access fees, and a 30% commission on what you make from the program) and the fact that your program will be lost among thousands of others.br /

br /

So many companies have decided to manage their own affiliate programs, using specialized software and with their own promotional plans (30% buys a lot of AdSense). I surfed the ten most popular independent affiliate program directories, and I've listed ten of the more promising programs. br /

br /

Disclaimer: I do not necessarily recommend or endorse any program here. All I know is that I reviewed the listing, visited the website and decided that it was genuine (rather than a bunch of ads or links and/or a Clickbank or other program's front site).br /

There are plenty of good programs out there that aren't connected to a big affiliate network, and plenty of directories to find them. br /

br /

Here's a good Google tip: type in the word or phrase that describes the affiliate program keyword, then include +affiliate. For example, if you're looking for a dog toys affiliate you would search dog toys +affiliate. You should get back a bunch of programs.br /
