Why Wealthy Affiliate Choose Affiliate Programs

Affiliate programs are superb business opportunities, as well as an outstanding business idea. Here's the geez. You join an affiliate company and they give you a unique URL called an, Affiliate Link, which only you have. When people click on your affiliate link it not only brings them to your affiliate site but it also signals the affiliate company that you directed this person to their site. Now if that person makes a purchase you will be given commission as a reward for generating business for that company. Commissions can be as high as 75%! Does that sound interesting to you? If so read on!

This is how can you find an affiliate program. There are literally 1000s of websites eager for new affiliates. One way is to do a search for, affiliate programs using a search engine such as Google. Another way is to join ClickBank for absolutely free. ClickBank works with 100s of affiliate companies. After you join ClickBank, You then choose from a list affiliates ClickBank is affiliated with. You then promote an affiliate link that is a combination of ClickBank's and whatever affiliate site you are promoting. ClickBank then pays you instead of the company you are an affiliate for. You can also find a link usually labeled, affiliates on websites that have affiliate programs. You will usually find this link at the very bottom of the homepage in very small text size.

Depending on which Affiliate program you join they will pay you weekly, biweekly, monthly or bimonthly but most often biweekly or monthly. They will usually give you the option of how you will get paid via company check or Electronic Bank Transfer. I prefer Electronic Bank Transfer because payment is immediate and you don't have to worry about your check getting lost or stolen. At the same time you can quickly reinvest the money to promote your affiliate products. This will only accelerate your earnings online.

The best thing about running an affiliate business online in my opinion is this. When you run a business, any business whether it is internet based or not, you must deal with a host of things including, but not limited to, inventory, storage, packing, shipping, complaints, returns, phone calls, emails, checks and credit cards just to name a few. When you're an affiliate, they take care of all of that for you! Your only job is to advertise for them. Once you have directed someone to your affiliate website via your affiliate link your job is done. They will take over from there. What could be a sweeter deal?! Perfect! Sweet! Everything is taken care of. Your main job is just to promote and receive the money every month. How easier can this be?

Advertising and marketing your affiliate link can be accomplished in a number of different ways. Spending advertising dollar on Google AdWords is one of the fastest way to earn if you know how. Article submission or usually named Article Marketing or Bum Marketing is another great way to start. There are 1000s of Article submission sites or directories where you can submit your articles to for absolutely free. For an example you can check out, IdeaMarketters. Click on the link at the upper right part of their homepage entitled, Learn How This Site Works. There are a number of ways you can find other article submission sites far too numerous to approach here, so I will only say that one way is to do a search using any search engine and typing in, Article Submission Sites. Another way to allow your affiliate link to be made known to the world is through discussion forums. One of the best out there is the AssociatePrograms.com forum. Discussion forums allow you to attach a signature file to the bottom of all your posts, where you may include your affiliate link. When people in the forum click on your signature link and purchase the product, you will be paid, yet again.
